YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE

Your Duty of Disclosure

Before You enter into a contract of general insurance with an insurer, You have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter which you know or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk of the insurance and if so, on what terms. You have that same duty to disclose those matters to us before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

Your duty however does not require disclosure of a matter:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken by the insurer;
- that is common knowledge;
- that the insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of business as an insurer, ought to know;
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer.

Non-Disclosure

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract. If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

Proclaim handles your personal information with care and in accordance with the Privacy Act 1988 and the Australian Privacy Principles. Proclaim collects personal information about you to provide you with insurance and insurance related services.

Where you provide us with personal information about others, you represent to us that you have made them aware of that disclosure and of our Privacy Policy and that you have obtained their consent. If you do not consent to provide us with the personal information that we request, or withdraw your consent to the use and disclosure of your personal information at any stage, we may not be able to offer you the products or provide the services that you seek.

For information about how to access and or correct the personal information we hold about you or if you have any concerns or complaints, ask us for a copy of our Privacy Policy or visit www.proclaim.com.au
